We will be taking achievement tests Monday through Thursday this week. I am very excited to see how much the students have learned this year. We will also be doing each of our regular subjects a couple of times during the week, and mix in some really fun activities. On Thursday we will have reading time to celebrate the end of testing. The students may bring slippers, a pillow, and a stuffed animal in addition to a book they want to read. I will send home a reminder next week.

The students are looking forward to a week that is fun and different. Please make sure they get lots of rest and a good breakfast so that they can truly do their best work. Many days the tests will begin right away after pledges and prayer, so please try to be on time.

Remember to pray for our speech meet winners Friday morning as they participate in the ACSI speech meet. They are Haylee Williams, Madison Martin, and Hannah Davidson.

Have a wonderful time celebrating our Saviors resurrection!!!

In Christian love,
Miss Peacock
